

MARSHAL RICHARDS FULLY EXONERATED

Alaska Official Had Been Convicted of Jury Fixing.

REVERSED IN APPEALS COURT

Decision Declares There Was Not the Slightest Evidence to Incriminate Accused Official.

The Department of Justice has received the decision of the court of appeals at San Francisco, in the case in which United States Marshal Richards, of Alaska, was charged with criminal contempt of court and with fixing a jury in the prosecution of Postmaster Joseph Wright, at Nome. Richards was convicted in the court of Judge Wickersham, at Nome, but the court at San Francisco has reversed the lower tribunal, and finds there is no evidence whatever to sustain the charges against the marshal.

Appeal From Sentence.

At Nome, much evidence was introduced to show that Richards packed the jury in Judge Wickersham's court in the interest of Wright. The evidence, consisting of hundreds of pages, was sent to the Department of Justice, and it was considered there was no adequate showing against the marshal. The lower court fined him, but he took an appeal, and pending this appeal, owing to what the Department of Justice considered the insufficient nature of the evidence, he was retained in office. This aroused much criticism of the department. The court of appeals holds, however, that the record shows there is not the slightest evidence to incriminate Richards.

Charges Unsustained.

Not long ago, a report of experts reached the Department of Justice, in which it was set forth the charges against Richards were not found to be sustained. He was accused of sharing profits from feeding prisoners, and of being interested in the rental of the building used at Nome as a jail. These charges have been hanging over Richards for a year.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM NEARBY STATES

MARYLAND.

ANNAPOLIS.

Mrs. Kate Kealy, who held out so long against the Government forces and refused to abandon her little house in the Naval Academy grounds, has at last signified her purpose to surrender. This disposition was largely influenced by Chief of Police Francis T. Brown, of Annapolis. The property was acquired by the Government to enlarge the Naval Academy grounds, but Mrs. Kealy refused to go even after all the surrounding houses were torn down.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

The Montrose Iron Works, at Laurel, have shut down and the plant has been removed to Frederick, where the proprietor, W. T. S. Diven, has closed a deal with the Business Men's Association. This plant employed thirty men. All are out of employment. Negotiations are in progress to start another iron foundry in Laurel, near the Baltimore and Ohio depot, and also to erect a cold storage plant.

A. Albertoli, a railroad contractor of Roanoke, died yesterday morning at the Valley Hotel, in Hagerstown, from an attack of heart paralysis. He was a passenger on the Norfolk and Western train due here at 4 o'clock a. m. and was taken sick on the train. Shortly before 7 o'clock he became unconscious and passed away. He was aged about fifty years.

The election supervisors of Howard county held a protracted session yesterday, having the two contending Republican factions before them, each presenting a ticket for recognition as the regular ticket of that party. The Blakeney or McComas ticket was finally given the right of way.

Mary Elizabeth Fairbank and Eugene H. Benson, of St. Michaels, were married at the home of the bride in Eastern yesterday by the Rev. Charles A. Grim. The ushers were Arthur F. Grace, of Eastern, and Le Roy Fairbank, of Altoona, Pa.

Rhoda B. Brown, daughter of Edwin Brown, was married to William B. Bechtel at Hopewell Methodist Episcopal Church, in Port Deposit, last evening by the Rev. W. E. Greenfield, assisted by Dr. R. W. Todd.

George Arnold, of Woolerys district, Carroll county, was shot in the leg Sunday evening while attempting to rescue a young girl from two strangers in the woods near Ogg Summit School.

The case of Elmer Heath, charged with killing Katie Adkins, his sweetheart, in Salisbury last June, was begun in court yesterday. The courtroom was crowded, many women being among the spectators.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Maryland Synod, Lutheran Church, is in session at Frostburg. There are eighty delegates, with Mrs. P. A. Hellman, of Baltimore, president.

TENNESSEE TOWN PROJECT.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 8.—It is expected that another industrial town will be established in Blount county, near the North Carolina line, as a result of the purchase of mountain timber and mineral lands by Pennsylvania capitalists. The town is to be built on 50,000 acres of land near Rebus Gap.

FEDERATION OF LABOR TO MEET IN BOSTON

Annual Convention to Be Held There.

FOUR HUNDRED DELEGATES

Gompers' Re-election Probable—Miller
Case May Be Brought Up for Discussion and Action.

The next annual convention of the American Federation of Labor is to be held in Boston, beginning November 9, and continuing for about two weeks. President Gompers, First Vice President James Duncan, Fourth Vice President James O'Connell, and Secretary Frank Morrison, all of whom have their headquarters in Washington, will attend the annual gathering, and expect to leave Washington a day or two before the opening day's session.

Election of Officers.

The Federation has a membership of about 1,500,000 persons, and about 400 delegates and officers will represent that number of members at the convention. A president, six vice presidents, secretary, and treasurer will be chosen for the organization at this meeting. President Gompers has been president of the Federation for the past twenty years, and will in all probability be re-elected. Secretary Morrison has held his office for six years, and there are indications that he will also be chosen again.

Important Questions Pending.

The last convention was held in New Orleans, and was most successful. This year's meeting, because of the various questions to be considered and entanglements to be straightened out, will, it is believed, prove highly interesting and spirited.

When asked this morning whether or not the Miller case was to be brought up at the convention, President Gompers replied: "I prefer not to say. I know of a number of things to be brought up at the convention, but shall say nothing of them until the convention opens."

Coming to the Theaters

Columbia—Bertha Galland.

"Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," with Bertha Galland as the star, will be seen at the Columbia Theater next week, coming direct from a successful run at the Chestnut Street Opera House, Philadelphia, where the production was pronounced the most elaborate and picturesque of the season, and the company unsurpassed as an acting ensemble. Miss Galland will be welcomed by her many Washington admirers, who recall her spring season.

Comedy and romance, history and modern stagecraft are mingled in Paul Kester's dramatization of Charles Major's popular novel. The period lends itself to picturesque costuming, and the scenes have all been carefully reproduced from pictures of old Haddon Hall, in Derbyshire, one of the best preserved Elizabethan mansions in Great Britain. Miss Galland's supporting company includes May Robson, Kate Denin Wilson, Isabel Richards, Mary Bacon, William Lewers, Frank Losee, Sheridan Block, George LeSair, A. Law Gislis, and Carl Anthony.

National—Kyrle Bellew.

In the role of "Raffles—The Amateur Cracksman," Kyrle Bellew will return to Washington next Monday night for a week's engagement at the National Theater. This part will compel the star to don the conventional habiliments of modern society for the first time in sixteen years.

The play is similar in style and treatment to "Sherlock Holmes," "Captain Swift," and "Jim the Penman," embracing many of the technical elements of these successful plays.

Mr. Bellew will be surrounded, it is said, by one of the handsomest productions Lieber & Co. have ever sent out of New York, and supported by a company of artists headed by E. M. Holland.

Clara Blandick, Ethel Matthews, a noted London beauty never seen here before; Hattie Russell, Ada Rehan's sister; Lucy Milner, and Mignon Berger are prominently cast in the female roles, while Stanton Elliot, Frank Roberts, Frank Connor, Frank McCormack, and Alfred James will be seen in the more important male characters.

Chase's—Vaudeville.

Hyde's Comedians will make their next annual appearance at Chase's next week. At the head of the assemblage of attractions are the Four Mortons, who contribute songs, comedy and dances. The second offering will be the Four Hallows in a suspended wire act, in which they do a cake walk, bicycle riding, somersaulting, and other unusual feats. Piccolo's midgets are another feature, and will provide a specialty that is bound to be surprising and pleasing. Paul Kleist, billed as "the world's musical novelty," will present an act that has made a profound impression this season, one feature being the appearance of musical instruments without visible support. Hill and Whitaker will give their lively banjo turn, and the Yankee Comedy Four will entertain with eccentric comedy. Bennett and Young and Cole and Warner fill out the bill.

Lafayette—"A Prince of Tatters."

At the Lafayette next week, Charles H. Yale and Sidney R. Ellis will present Al H. Wilson, the German character comedian and singer. Mr. Wilson is appearing in "A Prince of Tatters," a story of old New York. Among the songs are "The Jolly Rover," "The Winding of the Yarn," "Schmitzbank," "Whispering Breeze," "Memory," and "My Old Pipe."

Academy—"Shadows of a Great City."

"Shadows of a Great City," will come again to the Academy of Music next week.

This play is said to sparkle with good comedy and to present many climaxes. Among the features are a river in which a daring rescue is made, a storm and a flotilla of boats on the East River, New York. In the cast are A. L. Jarrett, Thomas Meegan, Edwin B. Tilton, Walter Coligan, Francis Meek, W. A. Paul, Irene Gaunt Tilton, William Segrist, Harry Dawson, and others.

Empire—"A Fight for Millions."

"A Fight for Millions," which will be seen at the Empire Theater next week, is said to be a combination of comedy, vaudeville, and melodrama. A story of New York life, sparkling with fun and at the same time full of scenes that thrill as well as amuse, the play has been given a welcome everywhere, and arrangements have been perfected for its production in England, South Africa, and Australia. In the cast are Edith A. Pond, Eugene M. Perkins, and John J. Dempsey, who provides a clever dancing specialty.

Lyceum—Reilly & Woods' Burlesquers.

"Down at Murphy's Home" is the title of the opening burlesque of Reilly & Woods' Burlesquers, who come to the Lyceum Theater for a week's engagement next Monday. The burlesque is said to abound with comedy situations. The numbers introduced by the show girls are said to be entertaining and captivating, while the music is tuneful. The olio includes Pat Reilly himself, Nat Le Roy, George and Lilla Brennan, Craig and Ardell, Bonita and her Picks, and the Orpheus Comedy Four.

AN EXPERT CUTTER.

M. P. Fitzsimmons With J. C. Wineman & Co.

J. C. Wineman & Co., 914 F Street, have recently increased their facilities for producing stylish garments for men by securing the services of M. P. Fitzsimmons as cutter. Mr. Fitzsimmons was formerly engaged in the tailoring business here, and has spent the last three years in the foremost tailoring art centers of the country. Wineman & Co. announce their complete satisfaction with the beginning of the present fall season, and say the outlook is far more encouraging than at any other time in their career. They are exhibiting an extended line of novelty effects for natty clothes, and are finishing some of the smartest suits and overcoats worn in the city.

RAWLINS POST CAMPFIRE.

The officers and comrades of John A. Rawlins Post, No. 1, G. A. R., Department of the Potomac, Washington, D. C., have sent out invitations for a campfire to be held at Grand Army Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock to commemorate the thirty-seventh anniversary of the post, on which occasion Comrade James Tanner, past department commander, Department of New York, will be installed into office as judge advocate general of the Grand Army of the Republic, by Comrade I. G. Kimball, department commander.

The Koch Treatment For Consumption and Asthma Indorsed by Doctors.

Thousands of physicians indorse the Koch "Tuberculin" treatment as the only cure for Consumption and Asthma, and many of them send their patients to the offices of the Koch Lung Cure for treatment.

All other treatments have proved failures. The latest and most wonderful apparatus for giving the newest treatment for Consumption, Catarrh and Asthma is at 1235 New York Avenue, Washington.

Dr. Edward Koch and his physicians in charge of the Koch Lung Cure have made a lifetime study of these diseases. They charge nothing for consultation or trial treatments, and are always pleased to talk with the afflicted. Their method of killing the germs of the disease is by the inhalation process, which throws the healing, oily vapors into the lungs, and not by the old way of taking medicine into the stomach; and it has met with the most wonderful success. They have cured hundreds of patients, and will be glad to give names and addresses to any person who will call for them at the original Koch Lung Cure, 1235 New York Avenue, Washington.

PARKS PLANS STRIKE ALL OVER COUNTRY

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Strikes and lock-outs in the building trades, which have cost builders of this city hundreds of thousands of dollars and kept thousands of workmen out of employment this summer, have been mere skirmishes compared to the labor war to come, if Sam Parks has his way. Parks announced yesterday afternoon that he intends to extend the building strike to all parts of the country.

MOTHERS, DO YOU KNOW

the many so-called birth medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupifying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a purely vegetable preparation, and that it is applied externally only?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated prescription and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradford Regulator Co.?

Do you know that when you use this perfect remedy during childbirth or throughout the entire period of gestation that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, clever children?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists, $1.00. Accept no substitute. Our book "Motherhood" free.

FUNERAL OF J. F. GEDNEY, OLDEST PLATE PRINTER

The funeral of the late Joseph F. Gedney, who died at his residence, 419 B Street northeast, Monday evening, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, took place from his late residence at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Gedney was one of the oldest plate printers in the city. He was a native of France, though descended from an old English family. He came to Washington in 1854, and opened an engraving establishment on Maryland Avenue near the Capital, and later at 466 Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, where he had most of the Government contracts for this class of work. He enlisted in the army in 1861 and was a member of Rawlins Post, No. 1, G. A. R. Three sons and three daughters survive him, Thomas H. Gedney, Albert G. Gedney, and William E. Gedney, his sons, are all engravers.

DIPLOMATIC SCHOOL OPENS AT COLUMBIAN

Dr. Needham Made Short Address.
Several Make Speeches.

The fall session in the School of Comparative Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, Columbian University, opened Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Needham, president of the university, presided and made a short address in which he outlined the policy for the new year in fitting men for consular and diplomatic service.

Dr. Henry St. George, dean of the department, delivered an address to the students and made a brief sketch of his purposes for the term. Addresses were also made by John A. Kasson, Judge Martin A. Knapp, Oscar P. Austin, Walter C. Clephane, Carl Hau, John W. Holcomb, John F. Crowell, and Charles W. Swisher.

High Class Druggists AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or official names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup"—and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.
